

Unit & Assessment Outline for Students & Parents Grades 11 – 12.

Year	2018	Semester	2	Grade	12	Unit Value	0.5
Curriculum	ACT and PNG
Subject Title/s	Geography
Course Name	Geography T
Code/Unit	ACT: Unit 4 global transformation PNG: Units 12.2-12.3 globalisation

Assessment Tasks

Week Due	Topic(s)	Type of Task	Weighting
3	Case study analysis	Assignment	50%
6	Skills: climographs, reading and interpreting topography maps.	Test	50%

ACT. Learning outcomes against which the students will be reported.

- understand the ways people adapt to and resist the forces of international integration
- think geographically, based on an understanding of the complexities of an increasingly interdependent world
- apply geographical inquiry and a range of skills, including spatial technologies and fieldwork, to investigate the complexity of the integrated world

PNG. Assessment Criteria.

- identify the different ways in which fossil fuel and energy resources are used or abused
- identify the impacts of resource abuse on the environment and the climate
- identify traditional Melanesian knowledge of wildlife utilisation
- demonstrate an understanding of appropriate farming methods and sustainable ways of food production
- Examine and present issues relating to logging in Papua New Guinea.
- use case studies to compare and contrast developed and developing countries with Papua New Guinea
- describe the impact of changing altitude on vegetation and land use
- interpret and apply graph and map skills
- analyse media articles and reports
- locate physical features using lines of latitude and longitude
- use topographic maps to locate natural or built features

Summary of Content

Weeks	Content Outline	Curriculum Links
1-2	Farming and food security Energy uses Mining resources Logging and its social issues	PNG: unit 12.1 resource use and Management ACT: Unit 3 Land cover transformation
3-4	Distribution of world cities	PNG: unit 12.2 urbanisation and globalisation ACT: Unit 4a globalisation
5-6	Case study 1: comparing PNG with a developed nation Skills on reading and interpreting contours lines and bearing	PNG: unit 12.3 Case studies ACT: Unit 4a globalisation
7-8	Case study 2: comparing PNG to another developing country Case study 3: comparing PNG along latitude revision through use of exam papers	PNG: unit 12.2 urbanisation and globalisation ACT: Unit 4a globalisation
9-10	Revision using exam papers Skills: grid reference and direction	PNG: unit 12.2 urbanisation and globalisation ACT: Unit 4a globalisation
11-12	Skills: straight line distances, interpreting climo graphs and weather graphs
13-14	Grade 12 examination for PNG Students
15-16
17-18
19-20		